

I think the adult population is capable of making healthy decisions if given access to all sides of the issue at hand – censorship of some of those ‘sides’ out of the public view is inherently prone to corruption...and Bribery . Censorship of said sides/views is also inherently un-Democratic.