

I hold grave concerns for the future of our democracy and our right to freedom of speech if this bill were to pass. When a government forcibly or otherwise restricts our freedom to move, our freedom of opinion and speech and freedom over our bodily autonomy, we no longer live in a democratic society and we have become ruled by a communist regime that we once demonised. I fully reject this Bill in its entirety.