

I am writing on this platform to say I do not agree with this legislation and don't feel it necessary or needed to have an independent governing body to censor or decide what is information and what is disinformation all the while the government is exempt from this legislation.

This is very dangerous territory.

I hold very close the ability to have freedom of speech and bringing this legislation in only opens the door further for communism and closing the door on democracy which this country has always stood by.

Richard Vaughan

Mobile [REDACTED]

Email [REDACTED]

Address [REDACTED]

I am happy for my comment to be published and added as a submission against the introduction of this policy.

Best Regards Richard Vaughan