

Dear Misinformation Bill Review,

Hello, I am a Christian believer and I am against the proposed Misinformation bill as this is a terrible overreach. The proposed 'Misinformation Bill' is a disaster. In it, the government is communicating to the Australian people that it distrusts the public but has full confidence in its own ability to determine the truth. Such an 'us and them' mentality is undemocratic and will prove devastating for our country.

The government should trust the Australian public with the responsibility to discern fact from fiction, not take that responsibility away. An informed and discerning public is the answer, not a 'Big Brother' government that shields its citizens from ideas. Australians must exercise critical thinking skills, not let the government do the thinking for them.

We are all prone to making mistakes. No one is able to be the sole source of truth, only God is and most definitely not a group of unelected bureaucrats in Canberra.

This bill should be stopped.
