

Dear Misinformation Bill Review,

I am [REDACTED] and live in [REDACTED], as a wife, mother, and grand mother I am very concerned about the government's "misinformation" law as we all have the right to opinions and being able to voice these opinions, this bill proposes to take away our rights as general citizens.

Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights states that “Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.”

The proposed bill will interfere with people’s ability to receive and impart information through social media. It is a violation of Australians’ human rights and must be entirely rejected.

It is not the role of the government to tell people what they can and cannot say or think. It is all too easy to see how unelected bureaucrats will be able to abuse these sweeping powers, once those powers are granted to them.

Please reject this bill.
