

This country will be destroyed if you allow such censorship laws to become part of the media landscape.

Living in Australia will become comparable to living in a Soft Core North Korea with these laws. Maybe that's what you want. Because these censorship proposals are not compatible with an open and free society you know this. Any normal thinking person knows this.

Australia will be a horrible place to live if these censorship laws come to pass. No one voted for these laws. You have gone off the rails completely even considering these laws. Whos thinking of these crazy laws you have gone mad. Australia would vote no to such laws guaranteed.

How can a populace defend itself against a government lying to its own people with laws like this in force? Answer is "You Cannot". North Korea is not the answer for Australia. Just stop with these cruel laws you guys have gone mad. STOP. No one voted for this.
