

Hi

I am writing in response to the new law relating to "misinformation". For decades Australians have been subjected to Murdochs' malign and corrosive editorials and right wing bigotry and ignorance masquerading as "the voice of reason" or "the high moral ground". Why is it that he and his people are free to pollute our discourse and yet the public square is suddenly being subjected to censorship ? Risible policy.

Regards

Ben Mitchell