

I strongly object to this bill.

Australians have the right to freedom of opinion and expression. It is essential that this right is maintained.

This bill is a tool which the government will use to override democracy and impose tyranny.

Existing legislation is adequate to prosecute anyone that incites a crime

Graham Brook

[REDACTED]

AUSTRALIA

Tel +61 [REDACTED]

email [REDACTED]

submission can be made public