

Dear Sir/Madam,

I wish to register my opposition to the proposed Communications Legislation Amendment (Combating of Misinformation and Disinformation) Bill 2023 and I want the government to abandon it. It seems to me that Freedom of Speech is only to be assigned to those proponents of the Bill and not anyone else. I refuse to be part of the "thought police" agenda. Truth means a lot to me and those proposing this Bill seem to be afraid of critical examination of their future proposals and agendas in order to control the populace. The country is not in a state of anarchy and institutions and Constitution has served us well thus far in maintaining Law and Order.

Yours faithfully,

Eunice Embury Johnson
