

Dear Misinformation Bill Review,

Freedom of speech is a fundamental right of every Australian. This proposed “misinformation” law is an attack on our basic human rights by a government that is supposed to uphold those rights.

Protect Australia from becoming a totalitarian authoritative country that suppresses freedom of thought and religion.

