

Organisation (if applicable)

Cardinia Shire Council

Published name

Greater South East Melbourne

Short comment

The greater south east region of Melbourne has immense potential for growth. In the next two decades, the region will evolve into a multifaceted employment and population centre, and an international airport will be the logical culmination of this transformation.