

Freebird Travel and Tours

Short comment

We would like more overseas carrier available to draw the cost of international air travel down. Carriers should comply with Australian law to protect traveller's rights. More tranperceny in regards of government approvals