

I know some aviators who experienced very close encounters (near collisions) with drones in uncontrolled aerodrome areas. Pilots' lives can be threatened in such situations. Therefore, it's not just in controlled areas, but also all aerodrome areas, where drones should follow strict rules. It may be a good idea to force ADS-B or OZ Runways or alike to be installed on drones.