

Published name

Daniel

Short comment

I believe there's got to be more consumer protection about camperd flights and delays in flights as this happens way too often these days I believe there should be some sort of compensation to consumers regarding this issue

I also believe we should have an open skies policy with most countries in our region to be able to bring more international flights to other major cities like Darwin Adelaide Cairns which this would also bring down prices and make the market more competitive within Australia