

Published name

Glenn Wilson

Short comment

Maintain a network of regional airports and airfields that do not require 'landing fees' to be paid by private users.

And abolish the ASIC requirement for pilots of private and recreational aircraft. The current requirements are silly when each pilot must provide ID for the issue and renewal of a licence and also the issue and renewal of a medical. You know who we are!