

Brisbane airport needs caps and a curfew, it is not reasonable to expect the residents of Brisbane to live with flights 24/7 and also the failure to take off and land over the ocean instead of land is disgraceful- wind has not been the reason why
Net zero should not be a Ponzi scheme for corporations at the expense of the average person