

There are laws for minimising/restricting noise levels on the road. Small aircraft flying low over dwellings do not appear to have the same restrictions and can fly low and very noisily over houses. This must be addressed!