

Claims and assumptions used to gain EIS approval must be upheld. If there are not, there must be penalties. Independently valued monetary compensation must be payable to negatively impacted residents. Planning for a new airport in Brisbane must commence now with decommissioning of the current Brisbane Airport.