

Aviation is essential to Australia however, it is important to consider the following

- 1- Airports should not create noise and discomfort to residential areas. Build airports slightly away from cities.
- 2- allow more airlines to come to Australia. Like Qatar Airways to create fair competition and benefit Australians.