

The lack of transparency in developing this green paper suggests that the process is captured by the aviation industry

This email is a simple request to revise the process, include and listen to the many residents adversely affect by the lack of consultation, consideration and concern for affected residents

This is yet another test that the Albanese government must step up to properly perform its obligations of decent, even handed governance

Yours faithfully

Lawrie Ward

Mob: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]