

Published name

Chad

Short comment

Living in Pullenvale, we received no notice, no warning nor any consultation before multiple flight paths were dumped on top of us. We have recieved no compensation to help with noise mitigation after our home has now become a super highway of noise.

There needs to be noise regulations put in place, compensation applicable to affected residents and accountability of the aviation industry. They have been given free reign to do what they want for far too long.