Checklist for a reimportation import approval application

November 2023

Approval holder and vehicle details

- Identify who will be the approval holder and provide their details.
- Identify the vehicle you are applying to re-import, including the type of vehicle, (car, motorbike, truck, trailer, etc.) make, model and year of manufacture.
- Provide proof of ownership, for example, a purchase invoice, receipt or registration documents.

Information needed for your application

- Say where the vehicle is located (which country). The vehicle must be outside Australia at the time you make the application.
- Provide a clear photo of the Australian identification plate, used import plate or details of the Register of Approved Vehicles (RAV) entry number.
- Provide clear photos of the vehicle taken in a well-lit area. The vehicle must be consistent with the information supplied from the RAV or details set out in the identification or used import plate.
- Provide details of any modifications made to the vehicle while overseas.
- Provide details of any contraventions of road vehicle legislation (or contraventions which may have been made) by the applicant.
- Complete the declarations that the information supplied is true and correct and that, if your approval is granted, you will comply with the conditions.
