Communications and the Arts

Dear Sir / Madam,

RE: Modernising Australia's National Classification Scheme - Stage 2 Reforms

Thank you for the opportunity to provide feedback in response to the Public Consultation Paper: Modernising Australia's National Classification Scheme - Stage 2 Reforms.

Communications Alliance will not make its own submission. However, we endorse DIGI's submission.

In doing so we note that Free TV has not participated in the endorsement process, and DIGI's submission does not represent Free TV's views.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss, please contact Christiane Gillespie-Jones (c.gillespiejones@commsalliance.com.au).

Yours sincerely,

About Communications Alliance

Communications Alliance is the primary communications industry body in Australia. Its membership is drawn from a wide cross-section of the communications industry, including carriers, carriage and internet service providers, content providers, platform providers, equipment vendors, IT companies, consultants and business groups.

Its vision is to be the most influential association in Australian communications, co-operatively initiating programs that promote sustainable industry development, innovation and growth, while generating positive outcomes for customers and society.

The prime mission of Communications Alliance is to create a co-operative stakeholder environment that allows the industry to take the lead on initiatives which grow the Australian communications industry, enhance the connectivity of all Australians and foster the highest standards of business behaviour.
