

The Governor should set up a panel appointing a board of up to 12 persons representing the community as a whole. They should not be able to be dismissed other than a supreme court judge can be. Then appointments to the board of ABC/SBS would be by the independent board. Other than the setting up of the first independent board the first time should require promotional appointments based on the current political make-up of the parliament.