

It is important that the national broadcasters have minimal interference from politicians.

Funding should be guaranteed over the life of the five year agreement. The budget makes multi-year commitments, there is no reason why this should not be so for this funding.

The level of funding? Tie it to politicians salaries.

The board should be independent of political influence. Ex-politicians should not be eligible for a fixed period after leaving office. Like the group in charge of selecting people for the boards.

Evan Hadkins