

Consultation Name: Updated fire control laws for Norfolk Island

Comment:

The proposed fire control laws are beyond a joke and are being proposed for no other reason other than to aggravate the Norfolk Islanders who have been burning for years.

These laws are being introduced to further push the cost of living up on Norfolk Island and to further drive the islanders off there land.

Submitted by Nathan Reeves

Submitted on 11 September 2022