Dear Mike

WSP is very supportive of the direction taken by the Office of Future Transport Technology seeking industry feedback on Draft Principles for National Approach to Cooperative Intelligent Transport Systems (C-ITS).

WSP is pleased to have had the opportunity to assist Office of Future Transport Technology by developing advice on strategies to support C-ITS deployment for your consideration. We note that the findings outlined in the WSP reports dated March 2022 are still current and relevant to the discussion regarding key principles and consideration of next steps for the development of C-ITS.

We look forward to working with government and industry to consider next steps toward delivering safer, efficient, sustainable and accessible travel to the Australian public. We welcome any further discussion or queries regarding the work we have undertaken to date.

Yours sincerely
