

Slow down. Look. Listen for trains.

There are 23,000 railway crossings across Australia and almost 1000 near misses a year at railway crossings. To keep our communities safe, it's important to:

Slow down to follow the Give Way or Stop sign and check your surroundings
Look for oncoming trains. They're fast and can be hard to see Listen for trains. You can often hear a train before you see it.

regionalrailsafety.gov.au

 Slow down. Look. Listen.

Australian Government