

Hi.

In regard to the regional telecommunications review i would like to inform you that the Munro - Stockdale area is bad and getting worse for phone reception. We have to go outside to talk to people.

Internet works occasionally, drops out all the time and it is really slow.

Lack of internet makes working from home and remote learning and farm bookwork difficult.

This isn't ideal as we live in a bush fire area

Thanks

Casey Nicholls