

For online material to meet the statutory test of being cyber abuse material targeting an Australian adult, it would need to satisfy all of the following conditions:.....

This test should apply equally to material sent by Australian citizens to those of any other country.