
Leon Hooke

Australian Editors Guild and Australian Writers Guild Member/ Freelance editor

Public submission

I support Model 3- Significant as I believe the Arts contribution to the economy is is vastly undervalued. A creative hole in the local audience's local content will lead to many unemployed and a long term lack of confidence in Australian society in general what with there possibly being much less of it present on local screens under other models.

Thank you.

LH