

Australian Government

Department of Infrastructure, Regional Development and Cities

Road Vehicle Standards

Notifying Infrastructure under the RVS legislation

Road Vehicle Recalls Working Group

21 November 2018

When will notification be required?

Within:

- Two days of taking voluntary recall action in relation to a road vehicle or approved road vehicle component supplied in Australia, or
- 10 days if the vehicle or component was supplied outside of Australia

Information likely to be requested from suppliers?

Supplier information:

- Supplier name (or authorised representative)
- Name of alternate contact
- Contact details for both Supplier and alternate
- Role(s) in the supply chain of the vehicle or component

Information likely to be requested from suppliers?

Recall initiation:

- Date voluntary recall action was taken
- Date of notification (auto filled)

Information likely to be requested from suppliers?

Vehicle/component information:

- Vehicle/component make
- Vehicle/component model
- Variants
- Year/s of manufacture
- VIN list*

Information likely to be requested from suppliers?

Supply information:

- Total quantity supplied
- Total number rectified (if applicable)
- Place of manufacture
- Dates of supply
- Traders who sold the vehicle or component
- Supplier campaign number

Information likely to be required from suppliers?

Recall plan:

- Supplier campaign number
- Description of the nature of the safety issue
- Description of the non-compliance
- Description of the consequence of the defect
(for safety recalls)

Information likely to be requested from suppliers?

Recall plan (cont.):

- Description of the consequence of the defect (for safety recalls)
- Technical report (to be attached)*
- Photographs to aid in identification
- Corrective action proposed
- Communications strategy*

Questions?

Contact:

Beth Morrison, Recalls Reform Manager, Vehicle Safety Standards
Recalls@infrastructure.gov.au

